

CASH for COLLEGE

LearnMoreIndiana.org

There are lots of ways to pay for college, including scholarships. Although some scholarships are automatically awarded when you apply for college, most of them require you to find the opportunities and then submit an application. Practice your scholarship-searching skills today with this activity.

Use the internet to scout out three scholarships for Indiana students, and fill in the blanks. An example has been completed for you.

Scholarship SEARCH

Scholarship Name	Source	Website	Requirements (GPA, community service, essay, etc.)	What can I do now to earn this scholarship?	Application Deadline
Outstanding Hoosier Student Example Scholarship	Example Scholarships, Inc.	ExampleScholarships.com/Indiana	GPA = 3.0 Essay about your leadership qualities. Volunteering experience preferred	Keep my grades up. Volunteer more at afterschool club, and seek more leadership roles in it.	Dec. 31, 2016

College Planning

Career Success